AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT is made on the 21st day of June, 1984, BETWEEN the Himachal Pradesh State Electricity Board having its headquarters at S himla as statutory body incorporated under the provisions of the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1948 (Act No. LIV of 1948) through Shri K. C. Mahajan, Chairman, Himachal Pradesh State Electricity Board (hereinafter called "the Company" which expression shall, unless the context otherwise require, include his successors in office and assignees) of the one part and the Governor of Himachal Pradesh through the Secretary (M.P. and Power), Government of Himachal Pradesh (hereinafter called "The Governor" which expression shall, unless the context otherwise require, include his successors in office and assignees) of the other part;

WHEREAS for the purpose of the construction of Pen-stock and Power House for Andhra Hydel Project in District Shimla the company has applied to the Government of Himachal Pradesh for the acquisition under the provisions of the land Acquisition Act, 1894 for the piece of land containing an area of 0.8 Bigha as per detail noted in the specification below, situated in Village Chirgaon, Tehsil Rohroo, Sub-Tehsil Chirgaon, District Shimla and more particularly described in the schedule hereto an delineated in the plan hereunto annexed;

AND WHEREAS the said Government of Himachal Pradesh being satisfied by an enquiry held under section 40 of the said Act that the proposed acquisition is needed for the aforesaid purpose and the said work is likely to prove useful to public, has consented to acquire on behalf of the company, the piece of land hereinbefore described;

AND WHEREAS the said Government of Himachal Pradesh has required the company under the provisions of section 41 of the above mentioned Act to enter into the Agreement with the Governor hereinafter contained;

Now this indenture witnesseth that it is hereby agreed and declared as follows:—

1. On demand the company shall and will pay to the said Government all and every amount in lieu of the said land tendered, paid or awarded or to be tendered, paid or awarded by the Collector under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 or by court or courts to which an appeal from the award of the said court may be preferred and all costs, charges and expenses of the proceedings in the aforesaid courts, or otherwise, incidental of the proposed acquisition or payable in respect thereof under the provisions of the said Act.

2. On demand made by the said Collector the obligations of the company under the last precedings clause not being thereby, limited, the company shall and will deposit with the said Collector such sum or sums or money as in his discretion the said Collector may in anticipation of estimate be necessary for the purposes mentioned in the last preceding clause.

3. On payment by the company of all demands under the foregoing first clause, or in the discretion of the said Government (on deposit by the company of all estimated amounts as provided in the second clause), but not before possession shall have been taken under the provisions of the above mentioned Act, the Government shall make over possession of the said land to the company and shall execute and do all such acts and deeds as may be necessary and proper for effectually vesting the same in the company.

4. The said land shall be held by the company for the purposes of such as Pen-stock and Power House for Andhra Hydel Project in Shimla district, as is hereinbefore mentioned and without the sanction in writing of the said Government first had and obtained for no other purpose whatsoever.

5. The construction of Pen-Stock and Power House for Andhra Hydel Project, in Shimla district shall be completed (and fully equipped in all respects ready for use) within minimum period of 2 years from the date on which possession of the said land shall have been given to the company.

6. Should the said construction of Pen-Stock and Power House for Andhra Hydel Project, not be completed (and fully equipped in all respect ready for use) within the period stated in the last preceding clause or within such further period as in it's discretion may be prescribed or allowed by the said Government or should the said land at any time thereafter cease for a period of six consecutive months to be held and used or cease to be required for the purpose or purposes provided for in the foregoing fourth clause then and in any such case, the said Government may summarily re-enter upon and take possession of the said land together with all structures thereon, whether such structures were erected before or after the transfer of the land to the company; and thereupon the interest of the company in the said land and structures shall absolutely cease and determine.

7. On taking such possession the said Government may sell or otherwise deal with the said land and structures as it may think proper:—

- (i) Should the said Government sell the land with the structures the said Government after deducting the expenses incurred in connection with the said taking of possession and with such sale shall pay the proceeds to the company.
- (ii) Should the said Government decide not to sell the land the said Government shall retain the said land and structures thereon in which case the Government shall repay to the company the market value as on the day of re-entry of all the structures erected by the company and all sums received from the company in respect of all and every amount as provided in the foregoing first clause (less the statutory allowance of 15% and less any amount received on account of trees and buildings which are not in existence at the time of resumption), but will not repay any sums paid and received on account of costs, charges and expenses of acquisition.
- (iii) Should the said Government decide to sell the land only upon such sale, the Governor, shall after deducting the expenses of taking possession and selling, pay the balance of the proceeds of sale to the company, together with the sum received from the company in respect of the amount for the land (less the statutory allowance of 15% and less any amount received from the company on account of trees and buildings etc. which are not in existence at the time of resumption), but will not repay any sum paid and received on account of costs, charges and expenses of acquisition.

8. Should any dispute or difference arise touching or concerning the subject matter of this agreement or any covenant clause or thing herein contained, the same shall be referred to the Secretary (Law) to the Government, and opinion and the decision of the aforesaid Secretary (Law) upon such dispute or difference shall be final and conclusive and binding on the parties thereto.

9. IN WITNESS WHEREOF Shri K. C. Mahajan, Chairman, Himachal Pradesh State Electricity Board for and on behalf of the Himachal Pradesh State Electricity Board and Shri K. C. Mahajan, Secretary (M.P.P. & Power) to the Himachal Pradesh Government, Shimla-2 for and on behalf of the Governor of Himachal Pradesh have hereunto set their respective hands and seal on the day and year first above written.

MINISTRY OF LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS

(Legislative Department)

New Delhi, the 12th January, 1984/Pausa 22, 1905 (Saka)

THE INDUSTRIES (DEVELOPMENT AND REGULATION) AMENDMENT ORDINANCE, 1984

No. 1 of 1984

Promulgated by the President in the Thirty-fourth Year of the Republic of India

An ordinance further to amend the Industries (Development and Regulation) Act, 1951

WHEREAS Parliament is not in session and the President is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action;

NOW, THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (1) of article 123 of the Constitution, the President is pleased to promulgate the following Ordinance:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Ordinance may be called the Industries (Development and Regulation) Amendment Ordinance, 1984.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Amendment of Section 3 of Act 65 of 1951.—In Section 3 of the Industries (Development and Regulation) Act, 1951 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act),—

(i) clauses (aa) and (ab) shall be re-lettered as clauses (ab) and (ac) respectively, and before clause (ab) as so re-lettered, the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(aa) “ancillary industrial undertaking” means an industrial undertaking which, in accordance with the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 11B and the requirements specified under the sub-section, is entitled to be regarded as an ancillary industrial undertaking for the purposes of this Act;”

(ii) clause (j) shall be re-lettered as clause (k), and before clause (k) as so re-lettered, the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(j) “small scale industrial undertaking” means an industrial undertaking which, in accordance with the requirements specified under sub-section (1) of section 11B, is entitled to be regarded as a small scale industrial undertaking for the purposes of this Act;”

3. Insertion of new section 11B.—After section 11A of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

“11B. Power of Central Government to specify the requirements which shall be complied with by small scale industrial undertakings.—(1) The Central Government may, with a view to ascertaining which ancillary and small industrial undertakings need supportive measures, exemptions or other favourable treatment under this Act to enable them to maintain their viability and strength so as to be effective in—

(a) promoting in a harmonious manner the industrial economy of the country and easing the problem of unemployment; and

(b) securing that the ownership and control of the material resources of the community are so distributed as best to subserve the common good, specify, having regard to the factors mentioned in sub-section (2), by notified order, the requirements which shall be complied with by an industrial undertaking to enable it to be regarded, for the purposes of this Act, as an ancillary, or a small scale, industrial undertaking and different requirements may be so specified for different purposes or with respect to industrial undertakings engaged in the manufacture or production of different articles:

Provided that no industrial undertaking shall be regarded as an ancillary industrial undertaking unless it is, or is proposed to be, engaged in—

(i) the manufacture of parts, components, sub-assemblies, toolings or intermediates; or

(ii) rendering of services, or supplying or rendering, not more than fifty per cent of its production or its total services, as the case may be, to other units for production of other articles.

(2) The factors referred to in sub-section (1) are the following, namely:—

(a) the investment by the industrial undertaking in—

(i) plant and machinery, or

(ii) land, buildings, plant and machinery;

(b) the nature of ownership of the industrial undertaking;

(c) the smallness of the number of workers employed in the industrial undertaking;

(d) the nature, cost and quality of the product of the industrial undertaking;

(e) foreign exchange, if any, required for the import of any plant or machinery by the industrial undertaking; and

(f) such other relevant factors as may be prescribed.

(3) A copy of every notified order proposed to be made under sub-section (1) shall be laid in draft before each house of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in disapproving the issue of the proposed notified order or both Houses agree in making any modification in the proposed notified order, the notified order shall not be made, or, as the case may be, shall be made only in such modified form as may be agreed upon by both the Houses.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), and industrial undertaking which, according to the law for the time being in force, fell, immediately before the commencement of the Industries (Development and Regulation) Amendment Ordinance, 1984, under the definition of an ancillary, or small scale, industrial undertaking, shall, after such commencement, continue to be regarded as ancillary, or small scale, industrial undertaking for the purposes of this Act until the definition aforesaid is altered or superseded by any notified order made under sub-section (1).”

4. Amendment of section 24.—In clause (i) of sub-section (1) of section 24 of the principal Act, for the words, brackets, figures and letter “sub-section (2) of section 29B”, the words, brackets, figures and letters “sub-sections (2), (2A), (2D), (2F) and (2G) of section 29B” shall be substituted.

5. Amendment of section 29B.—In section 29B of the principal Act, after sub-section (2), the following sub-sections shall be inserted, namely:—

“(2A) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of sub-section (1), the Central Government may, if it is satisfied, after considering the recommendations made to it by the advisory committee constituted under sub-section (2B), that it is necessary so to do for the development and expansion of ancillary, or small scale, industrial undertakings by notified order, direct that any article or class of articles specified in the First Schedule shall, on and from such date as may be specified in the notified order (hereafter in this section referred to as the “date of reservation”) be reserved for exclusive production by the ancillary, or small scale, industrial undertakings (hereafter in this section referred to as reserved article”).

(2B) The Central Government shall, with a view to determining the nature of any articles that may be reserved for production by the ancillary, or small scale, industrial undertakings, constitute an Advisory Committee consisting of such persons as have, in the opinion of that Government, the necessary expertise to give advice on the matter.

(2C) The Advisory Committee shall, after considering the following matters, communicate its recommendations to the Central Government, namely:—

(a) the nature of any article or class of articles which may be produced economically by the ancillary, or small scale, industrial undertakings;

(b) the level of employment likely to be generated by the production of such article or class of articles by the ancillary, or small scale, industrial undertakings;

(c) the possibility of encouraging and diffusing entrepreneurship in industry;

(d) the prevention of concentration of economic power to the common detriment; and

(e) such other matters as the Advisory Committee may think fit.

(2D) The production of any reserved article or class of reserved articles by any industrial undertaking (not being an ancillary, or small scale, industrial undertaking) which, on the date of reservation, is engaged in, or has taken effective steps for, the production of any reserved article or class of reserved articles, shall, after the commencement of the Industries (Development and Regulation) Amendment Ordinance, 1984, or, as the case may be, the date of reservation, whichever is later, be subject to such conditions as the Central Government may, by notified order, specify.

(2E) While specifying any condition under sub-section (2D), the Central Government may take into consideration the level of production of any reserved article or class of reserved articles achieved immediately before the date of reservation, by the industrial undertaking referred to in sub-section (2D), and such other factors as may be relevant.

(2F) Every person or authority, not being the Central Government, who, or which, is registered under section 10 or to whom, or to which, a licence has been issued or permission has been granted under section 11 for the production of any article or class of articles which has, or have, been subsequently reserved for the ancillary, or small scale, industrial undertakings, shall produce, such registration certificate, licence or permission as the case may be, within such period as the Central Government may, notified order, specify in this behalf, and the Central Government may enter therein all or any of the conditions specified by it under sub-section (2D), including the productive capacity of the industrial undertakings and other prescribed particulars.

(2G) The owner of every industrial undertakings (not being an ancillary, or small scale, industrial undertaking) which, immediately before the commencement of the Industries (Development and Regulation) Amendment Ordinance, 1984, or the date of reservation, whichever is later,—

(a) was engaged in the production of any article or class of articles, which has, or have, been reserved for the ancillary, or small scale, industrial undertakings, or

(b) had before such commencement or before the date of such reservation, as the case may be, taken effective steps for commencing the production of such reserved article or class of reserved articles, without being registered under section 10 or in respect of which a licence or permission has not been issued under section 11, shall refrain from the production of such reserved article or class of reserved articles, on and from the date of expiry of three months from such commencement or from the date of such reservation, whichever is later.

(2H) Every notified order made under sub-section (2A) shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days, which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the notified order or both Houses agree that the notified order should not be made, the notified order shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be: so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that notified order.

6. Validation.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any judgement, decree or order of any court, tribunal or other authority and notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, agreement or other instrument for the time being in force, every notification made or purporting to have been made by the Central Government under the principal Act, on or after the 19th day of February, 1970, reserving any article or class of articles for production by any ancillary or small scale industrial undertaking or any class of ancillary or small scale industrial undertakings shall, for all purposes, be, and shall be deemed always to have been, as valid and effective as if the amendments made to the principal Act by this Ordinance had been in force at all material times and such notification had been made in full compliance with the provisions made by such amendments and accordingly any reservation made or purporting to have been made by such notification shall, in accordance with the tenor thereof, have, and be deemed always to have had, effect on and from the date of such reservation and shall, until it is altered or superseded by any fresh notification under the principal Act as amended by this Ordinance, continue to have effect.

Explanation.—For the removal of doubts it is hereby provided that no act or omission on the part of any person shall be punishable as an offence which would not have been so punishable if this section had not come into force.

ZAIL SINGH.
President.

R. V. S. PERI SASTRI,
Secretary,
to the Government of India.
